

FOR ALL I suspect that our "Christian Zionists" will not relinquish their blind favoritism for the Israeli Jews until the Tares are removed....It is this seminal event that will finally awaken the world to Who is Who in this world, and Who is Not! See attached Paper on the Tares. Following this note:
////////////////////////////////////

The Tares Have Risen Above the Wheat!

Col. J. Richard Niemela

History it appears, has reached that prophetic time when false claimants to privilege, when obstructors of a civil course through a Christian life are revealed - those of Esau, who is Edom (Gen.36:1), who now possess a prophetic 'Dominion' over those of Jacob who are now captive. A historic time when these pretenders to the Kingdom are exposed for Who and What they are: "Tares," noxious weeds growing in the Wheat fields of Christianity.

Lukewarm Christians may be surprised, disappointed and even filled with anxiety when they realize that these "false associates", who also are misleading the Shepherds, are alien "strangers" that have been "seeded" and are growing amongst them. Pretenders, determined to misguide and steer the Wheat from the Harvest-- the gathering of His fruit into the Kingdom of the Lord.

When that ancient Sower scattered His seeds on the wheat fields of this world, these seeds were the Word of God, strewn on His fields, the wheat fields of His kingdom (1). But after this seeding, enemies scattered their own seeds, the "Tares"-- into these wheat fields while men slept. Many are still asleep, blind to an insidious growth among them.

Throughout history, these wheat plants often experienced diversions from truth, always needed care, nurturing, cultivation, watering and sunlight. The Tares seeded among them however, conspired and competed for dominance, blocked the 'light' and corrupted His cultivation; disguising their true purpose! These counterfeit seeds sown among the wheat produced a plant able to emulate the wheat - to subtly intertwine roots with their neighboring Wheat stalks, inhibiting removal; all the while, presenting an appearance of similarity and thus seeming legitimacy.

From an old church dictionary comes a clear description of the term, "Tares":

TARES: [Matthew 13] Zizanian-Latin, Zowan-Arabic, Sonin-Hebrew: zan means nausea. Not the Scottish vetch, but "darnel;" at first impossible to distinguish from wheat or barley, until the wheat's ear is developed, when the thin fruitless ear of the "darnel" is detected. Its roots too, so intertwines with that of the wheat, that the farmer cannot separate them, without plucking up both, "till the time of the harvest." The seed is like wheat, but smaller and black, and when mixed with wheat flour causes dizziness, intoxication, and paralysis; "Lolium temulentum," bearded darnel, the only deleterious grain among all the numerous grasses. Ivraie, French for "tipsy grass" whence our harmless "rye grass" is named. Hollow professors, having the form without the reality of godliness, nay, even hurtful and bad [Isaiah 29:13, Matthew 15:8, Mark 7:6, Ezekiel 33:31]. None but the Lord of the Harvest can distinguish the seeming from the real. The attempt to forestall His judgment for the sake of securing a pure church has always failed, and has only tended to foster spiritual pride and hypocrisy (2).

Tares - Useless exploitative plants that sprout and rise up to crowd a fruitful wheat - in reality, weeds - that during growth are almost impossible to distinguish from the wheat or barley. Only when its rigid, erect stalk is exposed above the bowing, bending wheat, waving its small, dark and noxious fruit, can it be distinguished!

When the wheat is ready for harvest, it bows down before the Lord, offering its fruit, seemingly in a sacrifice. But the Tares, with a lighter seed, are finally exposed - rigidly erect above the wheat - just before the Harvest. Now conspicuous and arrogantly proffering as Cain, a debilitating offering! Certainly - "The children of the wicked (one)" (3). ("One" had been added by the early translators)

Today, in this time before the Harvest, as the Lord informed His disciples and as His Word advises us as well-- His angels are required as in the Third vision of George Washington. Angels -- to cut, bundle and burn the Tares - before the Harvest begins. Tares, who are so entrenched today, that only His angels can separate the real from the false, and restore to men, a righteous Kingdom.

Passing centuries have seen the "Christian Wheat" ripening in the wheat fields of the Lord, but counterfeit Tares surreptitiously rose as well; their growth running parallel as antagonistic principles usually do. Tares, disguising their true intent while being assimilated among the pliant wheat. Over the years, driven by progressively deceptive promotions, there developed an association, a false affinity between these two plantings - between Christian Wheat and the Tares of Talmudic Judaism.

Pharisaical Babylonian Talmudism, which existed long before the time of Jesus, continues today as the "life's-blood of Judaism" - so termed by their rabbinical leaders! St. Paul described it as the "mystery of iniquity at work in his time", a people possessed of a subtle, but insidious determination to intertwine its evil roots with Christianity, thereby diverting Christians into a toxic association, a false religion, now called "Judeo-Christianity."

Judeo-Christianity, a relatively recent term, is now used to portray today's Christianity by associating it with "Judaism," assuming by inference that Judaism was the source of Christianity - thus creating an impression that Christians owe an allegiance to the self-styled Jews and their religion of Talmudic Judaism.

Yet in fact, the term Judeo-Christianity is a classic oxymoron, as the two religions are the antithesis of each, diametrically opposed. The Talmud was created while the "residue" of Judah was in the Babylonian captivity and was designed to permit circumvention of the rigid rules and instructions of Moses as found in the Torah, the Law. Eventually, the Talmud took precedence over the Pentateuch in the eyes of their Rabbi's.

The ancient Babylonian Talmud, called by the Lord the "Oral Traditions of the Elders that made the Law of non-effect," is now in print, but has been restricted from view throughout history. Its words are corrupt, subversive and severely anti-Christian. Luther wanted all copies burned. It spawned such damaging instructions as are currently found in the Communist and Humanist Manifesto's and in the diabolical Protocols of Zion – guidance that is often denied -- yet its dictates have been, and are being realized!

Jesus' views of the Pharisaical Talmudism of His day are now manifest within the Zionist/Talmudism of today. His words in Revelation 2:9 and 3:9 and other applicable Bible verses are as vivid and clear in condemnation of the falsity of the Jews today as then. How well the Lord understood this deception, the "entangled" roots of both religions, falsely intertwined, guided unfortunately as well, by misled, blinded Shepherds who promote a confused growth process among their flocks. Seeking by deception and confusion, to justify a seeming "natural" outgrowth of both "plantings."

This co-mingling, this intertwining of roots has led to the false assumption that both Tares and Wheat were sourced and seeded together - that they are, and have been – synonymous. Such views then evolved into today's new religion, "Judeo-Christianity" -- two religions falsely blended and assumed by inference to have sprung from the same fields of the Lord over the ages.

The Bible indicates otherwise, and historical events prove that these two faiths are not united in the platform of belief in Christ; the only avenue into the Kingdom as the Word insists!

Over the course of history, naive, "blinded in part" forgiving Christians, accommodated the growth of opposing Tares, saw them rise in their fields, then through deceit, saw them involve both over the ages in chaos and turmoil, in war – leading eventually, and often, to Jewish banishment. Creating historical events that were but pre-cursors to the reapers sickles – a foreshadowing of Matt.13's dire events as promised to occur by the Lord before the final "Harvest."

In the Parable of the Tares found in Matthew 13, loyal servants reported the appearance of Tares among the growing wheat, noted their disguised growth, done to avoid detection, but exploiting their location, their seeming similarity to the growing wheat and barley.

But, as was noted, the Householder, our Lord, advised His servants, once they were found, to permit their growth and not remove them, as the Tare's root structure grew parallel to the surface and thus became surreptitiously entangled with those of the Wheat, whose roots were firmly rooted downward. This entanglement of roots inhibited removal of the Tares, since weeding the Tares would thus uproot the Wheat. (Matt. 13:29)

However, at the time of the Harvest, when the aggressive but lighter and toxic seed of the Tares saw them rise to protrude above the compliant, heavier wheat, conspicuously overshadowing their host, the Reapers, now the angels, are then advised by the Lord to perform their mission: To remove the Tares - "gather out of His kingdom all things that offend, and them which do iniquity. Gather ye first the Tares and bind them into bundles for burning."

These actions do seem to imply that the Wheat (Christians), will have become 'captive', unable to resolve their status, since the Tares had become so entrenched that only His angels could perform the culling, the removal of these "weeds."

"Then shall the righteous shine forth as the sun in the Kingdom of their Father"(5).

The treasure hid in the fields does produce joy to those that find it.

How perfect and finite is the planning of our Lord. The smallest annotation, even the most simple of Biblical instructions, so dovetail together in this path of history across the generations, that His concern for even a sparrow fits into the great plan of the Lord.

This gathering of the Tares by the Lord's angels, the burning before the Wheat is housed in the Kingdom, implies in a literal sense, that the Wheat will experience these coming events, and will "see" the conclusion to the performance of His angels.

Psalm 91:8 promises, "Only with thine eyes shalt thou behold and 'see' the reward of the wicked." Further confirmation of this unique end-time event is noted in Psalm 37:34, "...when the wicked are cut off, thou shalt "see" it."

Consider well Christian, the words "see" and "behold." They confirm Jesus' words in Matthew 13:43. "...then shall the righteous shine forth as the sun in the kingdom of their Father...."

How does this 'seeing', this witnessing by Christians, with "their eyes", speak to those who promote doctrines of "Futurism" and a pre-tribulation "Rapture"? Those misguided Shepherds of Churchianity would have properly defined "Christian Israelites" taken away, to sit in comfortable arm chairs in the clouds with the Lord, watching events unfold here on earth. To this, we must say, Never Christian! You will be a witness to these events, and your "roots" to the past are important – As Jacob! As Israelites! As He states so adamantly in Jeremiah 30:7, that "Jacob will be saved out of it." -- Out of that coming indignation when the Tares et.al., are removed by the angels!

Clearly at the harvest, the untangled Wheat will shine forth as if they had been under clouds - black clouds, much like those depicted in Gen. Washington's revealing Third vision for America; one of three visions experienced when suffering with his troops at Valley Forge. The Tares, the ungodly pretenders, false claimants to the covenant promises, the corrupters, the obstructers, are protruding above the wheat today! Yet by their own actions they are being exposed, not only to the world, but to the heavenly reapers, the Lord's angels.

Yes, it is very obvious today, that the Tares have risen above the Wheat in the wheat field countries of the Lord -- those nations of true Israel, no longer "lost" yet still experiencing the "blindness in part" that St. Paul noted in Romans 11:25, would be their burden: blind only however, "until the time of the Gentiles (nations) be come in." That time is close (6). The Tares have achieved that ancient "dominion" promised by Isaac to Esau (7); they have risen to crowd our Christian heritage with a noxious presence -- have induced a Talmudic anti-Christian immorality and ungodly control upon the people. Their alien influence rises now in the Courts, in Theological Schools, Churches and Seminaries, making it very apparent too, that most Christians are thoroughly immersed in the doctrinal sea of the Talmud and its commentaries. From whom comes the predominant theme or a One-world government under the aegis of the Jew!

Their toxic policies filter through our financial, social and political institutions, most now dominated by Tares, making this once Christian nation subservient to a humanist, One World Order under very identifiable Tares. Many of today's Christians, like the passive wheat with entangled roots, submit: trying to be accommodatingly "Christian" as Christians are naturally wont to be: willing to forgive - almost docile in their blindness to today's rising prominence of the Tares, blind too, to that 2nd captivity that God said would emerge in the end (Jer.30:3-Ezek.39:25)), but a captivity that would then result in God's obvious intervention once again, in the affairs of the men of Israel.(Jer.30:8) Proving to all once again, that man cannot resolve his troubles without recourse to God.

Thankfully however, not all suffer that "blindness"-- many are rapidly beginning to realize and "see", as the disciples "saw" when they asked the Lord to "Declare unto us the Parable of the Tares..." Many Christians are beginning to recognize that a coming resolution to this ancient, contentious issue between Jacob and Esau is beginning to emerge. Our Lord, in the most detailed elaboration of His parables, was most specific in describing to whom this parable of the Tares applied and why, and especially to how it would be resolved. (8).

Today's rise to prominence of the Talmudic Tares makes them rigidly obvious above the Christian Wheat, but it is also beginning to stimulate a growing Christian awareness and an awakening to the Truth of themselves. The ancient blindness is being corrected; the scales are being removed; the truth of the Kingdom is emerging!

A clear indication that the time of the Harvest is approaching!

That ancient mixing of the seeds of good and evil, the intertwined roots, the disguised growth, the different fruit offerings, have seen the Tares rise to become a stumbling-block to the Wheat, many being led away from Biblical truths. Even by their own confused and misguided Shepherds, just as Jeremiah noted would happen, stating in Jer.50:6 that: "...My people hath been lost sheep: their shepherds have caused them to go astray..."

In the end however, this historic deception eventually leads to that final solution promised by the Lord to His disciples, and to us as well — who await that announcement, that solitary blast from the Seventh trumpet that calls the Princes of Israel, the Overcomers to attention, while warning of the separation of the Tares from the Wheat by His angels - Approaching as you read.

An event confirmed by the Lord's own words; even to the Pharisees: "but He answered and said, every plant which my heavenly Father, hath not planted, shall be rooted up"(9). Little did the Pharisees then realize that the future He spoke of, applied to their future kin.

The great historic controversy between good and evil, between Esau and Jacob, may finally have reached the limits of Divine forbearance. As this controversy today is increasing in intensity -- and will -- to the close of the age—Until the Tares of evil are finally removed and the Kingdom is restored.

From a presentation at Pentecost 1998
by Col. J.Richard Niemela, USAF-Ret.

Virginia Christian Israelites
Congregations of Israel
Post Office Box 94, Round Hill, VA 20142

Literature Cited

(1) Luke 8:11

(2) TARES, Bible Cyclopedia, A. R. Faussett, 1902, Trinity College, Dublin

(3) Matthew 13:38..The word "One" is not in the original texts-Inserted by Translators.

(4) Note: Washington's Third Vision for America shows intense internal turmoil fomented from within and supported from abroad. Conditions reach severe devastation: until finally, a "dark shadowy angel blew a trumpet blast." Then, "instantly a light, as of a thousand suns, shone down from above me...at the same time...descended from heaven, attended by legions of bright spirits. These immediately joined the inhabitants of America, who, I perceived ` were well-nigh overcome, but who immediately taking courage again, closed up their ranks and renewed the battle." GEORGE WASHINGTON'S VISION, available from Destiny Publishers, P. O. Box 177, Merrimac, MA 01860.

(5) Matthew 13:43

(6) Romans 11:25 and Ephesians 4:18

(7) Genesis 27:40 (last line)

(8) Matthew 13:37-43

(9) Matthew 15:13-20

COMMENT:

Col. Niemela has done an excellent and factual study of the parable of the "Tares," as found in the Gospel of Matthew, and one which is today, not mentioned very often in most churches. Explaining who the "Tares" are can be very problematical in today's desensitized and "politically correct" churches. It is interesting to note "who" is being removed (or dare I say "raptured") from the world as contrasted to the beliefs of fundamentalist churchianity. –

Pastor Chuck Kuhler, Virginia Christian Israelites—Round Hill VA.